Applications for international student entry to Immanuel College will be assessed according to English language proficiency, academic level, age of student, and results of an enrolment interview. All relevant evidence must be provided. Applications received that do not meet standard entry requirements may be assessed on a case by case basis.

The College will take into consideration the following factors when assessing applications:

English Language Proficiency Requirements (evidence must be supplied)

English Language Proficiency will be determined by the College in conjunction with language testing recommendations. Evidence of proficiency in English can be undertaken in the students' home country through the Australian Education Assessment Services or an alternate official English proficiency testing organisation such as IELTS or TOEFL Junior.

Student interviews

Individual interviews will be conducted with suitable applicants by International Admissions and relevant College staff to determine applicant's spoken English language proficiency and provide an opportunity to meet key staff and ask questions about the College. These interviews will be conducted either face-to-face or online.
